

Privacy Notice

John Street Systematic Fund Limited and John Street Systematic Master Fund Limited

The term "Fund" refers separately to each of the entities listed above.

Each Fund is incorporated in the Cayman Islands and its registered office is at PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman KY1-1104, Cayman Islands.

About this privacy notice

The Fund is a data controller in respect of your personal data for the purposes of data protection law, such as the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Law, 2017 of the Cayman Islands ("DPL"). The Fund is responsible for ensuring that it uses your personal data in compliance with data protection law.

Quintillion Limited, the Fund's administrator, will generally process personal data provided to it in connection with an investment in the Fund in accordance with the Fund's instructions, and the Fund will generally act as the data controller of any such personal data.

This privacy notice applies to you if (i) you are an applicant for shares in the Fund, (ii) your personal data has been provided to the Fund in connection with an application for shares in the Fund by another person (such as where you are a director, partner, trustee, employee, agent or direct or indirect owner of an applicant) or (iii) the Fund otherwise uses your personal data. This privacy notice sets out the basis on which personal data about you will be processed by the Fund. Please take the time to read and understand this privacy notice.

If you are a corporate applicant (including, for these purposes, legal arrangements such as trusts or exempted limited partnerships) that provides us with personal data on individuals connected to you for any reason in relation to your application for shares in the Fund, this privacy notice will be relevant for those individuals and you should transmit this document to such individuals or otherwise advise them of its content.

Personal data that the Fund might use

The Fund might process the following personal data about you:

- (a) Information provided to the Fund by you or (if different) the applicant: This might include your name and address (including proofs of name and address), contact details, date of birth, gender, nationality, photograph, signature, copies of identity documents, occupational history, job title, income, assets, other financial information, bank details, investment history, tax residency and tax identification information. Such information might be provided in an application form or in other documents (as part of an application process or at other times), face-to-face, by telephone, by email or otherwise.
- (b) Information that the Fund collects or generates: This might include information relating to your (or an applicant's) investment in the Fund, emails (and related data), call recordings and website usage data.
- (c) Information that the Fund obtains from other sources: This might include information obtained for the purpose of the Fund's know-your-client procedures (which include anti-money laundering procedures, counter-terrorist financing procedures, politically-exposed-person checks, sanctions checks, among other things), information from government or public bodies, public websites and other public sources and information received from the applicant's advisers or from intermediaries.

Uses of your personal data

Your personal data may be stored and processed by the Fund for the following purposes:

- (a) Assessing and processing applications for shares in the Fund and other share dealings, including performing know-your-client procedures, issuing and redeeming shares, receiving payments from and making payments to the applicant, calculating net asset value, and overseeing these processes.
- (b) General business administration, including communicating with investors, communicating with service providers and counterparties, accountancy and audit services, risk monitoring, the administration of IT systems and monitoring and improving products.
- (c) Compliance with legal and regulatory obligations and industry standards, including know-your-client procedures, the automatic exchange of tax information and legal judgments.
- (d) In respect of information shared with John Street Capital Limited (the “Investment Manager”) and its affiliates, their business activities relating to the Fund, such as investor relations, discussions with the Fund’s service providers and counterparties, decision-making in relation to the Fund, and business strategy, development and marketing.

The Fund is entitled to process your personal data in these ways for the following reasons:

- (a) If you are the applicant, you may enter into an investment contract with the Fund and some processing will be necessary for the performance of that contract, or will be done at your request prior to entering into that contract.
- (b) Processing may be necessary to discharge a relevant legal or regulatory obligation.
- (c) The processing will, in all cases, be necessary for the legitimate business interests of the Fund, the Investment Manager, the Fund’s administrator or another person, such as:
 - (i) carrying out the ordinary or reasonable business activities of the Fund, the Investment Manager, the Fund’s administrator or other persons, or other activities previously disclosed to the Fund’s investors or referred to in this privacy notice;
 - (ii) ensuring compliance with all legal and regulatory obligations and industry standards, and preventing fraud;
 - (iii) establishing, exercising or defending legal rights or for other purposes relating to legal proceedings; and
 - (iv) ensuring the security of information systems.
- (d) In respect of any processing of sensitive personal data falling within special categories, such as any personal data relating to the political opinions of a politically exposed person, the processing will be necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.

Disclosure of your personal data to third parties

The Fund may from time to time, in accordance with the purposes described above, disclose your personal data to other parties, including (a) the Investment Manager and its affiliates, (b) the Fund’s administrator and its affiliates, (c) professional advisers such as law firms and accountancy firms, (d) other service providers of the Fund, the Investment Manager and the Fund’s administrator, including technology service providers, (e) counterparties and (f) courts and regulatory, tax and governmental authorities. Some of these persons will process your personal data in accordance with the Fund's instructions and others will themselves be responsible for their use of your personal data. These persons may be permitted to further disclose the personal data to other parties.

Transfers of your personal data outside the European Economic Area

Your personal data may be transferred to and stored by persons outside the European Economic Area (the "EEA") or the Cayman Islands, and in particular may be transferred to and stored by affiliates or service providers of the Fund or the Fund's administrator outside the EEA or the Cayman Islands.

Where personal data is transferred outside the EEA, the Fund will ensure that the transfer is subject to appropriate safeguards or is otherwise permitted under applicable law. For example, the country to which the personal data is transferred may be approved by the European Commission, the recipient may have agreed to model contractual clauses approved by the European Commission that oblige them to protect the personal data, or the recipient may be located in the United States and be a certified member of the EU-US Privacy Shield scheme. Any international transfer of personal data shall be in accordance with the requirements of the DPL, and may include the foregoing measures.

You can obtain more details of the protection given to your personal data when it is transferred outside the EEA, including a copy of any standard data protection clauses entered into with recipients of your personal data, by contacting the Fund using the details set out under "Contacting the Fund" below.

Necessity of personal data for an investment in the Fund

The provision of certain personal data is necessary for shares in the Fund to be issued to any applicant and for compliance by the Fund and its service providers with certain legal and regulatory obligations. Accordingly, if certain personal data is not provided when requested, an application for shares might not be accepted or shares might be compulsorily redeemed.

Retention of personal data

How long the Fund holds your personal data for will vary. The retention period will be determined by various criteria, including the purposes for which the Fund is using it (as it will need to be kept for as long as is necessary for any of those purposes) and legal obligations (as laws or regulations may set a minimum period for which the Fund has to keep your personal data).

Your rights

You have a number of legal rights in relation to the personal data that the Fund holds about you. These rights may include the following:

- (a) The right to obtain information regarding the processing of your personal data and access to the personal data that the Fund holds about you.
- (b) In some circumstances, the right to receive some personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and the right to request that the Fund transmits that data to a third party where this is technically feasible. Please note that this right only applies to personal data which you have provided to the Fund.
- (c) The right to request that the Fund rectifies your personal data if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- (d) The right to request that the Fund erases your personal data in certain circumstances. Please note that there may be circumstances where you ask the Fund to erase your personal data but the Fund is legally entitled to retain it.

- (e) The right to object to, and the right to request that the Fund restricts, its processing of your personal data in certain circumstances. Again, there may be circumstances where you object to, or ask the Fund to restrict, its processing of your personal data but the Fund is legally entitled to continue processing your personal data or to refuse that request.
- (f) The right to lodge a complaint with the data protection regulator (details of which are provided below) if you think that any of your rights have been infringed by the Fund.

You can exercise your rights by contacting us using the details set out under “Contacting us” below. You can find out more information about your rights by contacting an EU data regulator such as the UK’s Information Commissioner’s Office, or by searching their website at ico.org.uk, or by contacting the Cayman Islands Ombudsman, or by searching their website at <https://ombudsman.ky/>.

If you would like further information on the collection, use, disclosure, transfer or processing of your personal data or the exercise of any of the rights listed above, please address questions and requests to Head of Investor Relations, compliance@johnstreetcapital.com, +44 20 7404 9428.

Other data controllers – administrator and depositary-lite services providers

As outlined above, in certain circumstances, there may be times where the Fund’s administrator or one of the Fund’s depositary lite service providers will act as a data controller when processing your information, where the administrator or depositary lite service provider uses the personal information you have provided for its own purposes rather than processing this information on behalf of the Fund. In such circumstances, all rights afforded to you under GDPR in relation to a data controller will be exercisable by you against the Fund’s administrator or the Fund’s relevant depositary lite service provider, as the case may be, each of which is contactable at the address stated in the prospectus of the Fund.
